"Leader" Theology.

The editress of the Stockton Leader refers to the orthodox hell as "the remote possibility of an accelerated temperature hereafter." No wonder she supports the Democratic ticket, since she dosen't believe in future punishment for misdeeds in the flesh.—Alta.

The Alta isn't wholly right. We believe in a regular orthodox hell of fire and brimstone, including a pea-green demon with a double-barrelled pitchfork and a cottonwood tail who will make things particularly lively for Re-"publicans and sinners."—Leader.

A Mr. Broaddus, of Leavenworth county, turns the grasshopper scourge to profitable account. He captures immense numbers of them in trenches, and feeds them to his hogs. They are a good substitute for corn.

The Sacramento Record says: The Independent party is already, to all practical intents, a dead cock in the pit. The main hope of its leaders lay in San Francisco, and what San Francisco thinks of the movement may be gathered from the almost ludicrous failure of the attempt to get up a popular ovation to Senator Booth the other night.

A letter in the Yreka Union from Scott's Valley; states that on Saturday night the 22d ult., some fiend in human shape endeavored to wreak revenge on Mr. Samuel Hance for some fancied wrong, entered his barn and poisoned two fine horses and 20 head of sheep, all he had.

On Monday the State Controller issued warrents for the salaries of State and county officers for May in the sum of $53,178 17; also drew a warrent in favor of R. O. Cravens in the sum of $459 90 for the purchase of books for the State Library.

The wires of the Western Union Telegraph Company were put to work at Hueneme Saturday, amid intense rejoicing of the people, who look upon the acquisition of telegraphic communications as a great aid to the growing commerce of the place.

Harrison Fuqua received a pardon from the Governor on Saturday, and is a citizen again. He was convicted of grand larceny in San Joaquin county last year, but his conduct since has been such as to justify strong hopes of reformation.

The State Controller on Saturday issued warrents as follows: For payment of interest on Pacific Railroad bonds, $52,500; interest on bonds of 1873, $84,030; interest on soldier's relief bonds, $3,352 20; interest on State Capitol bonds of 1870 and 1872. $8,750 each.

Borrowing Money.

Borrowing money upon the installment plan is attended with these advantages: The loan can be repaid in small monthly amounts which include the interest and part of the principal, so that by the expiration of the term it can be all paid without any great inconvenience to the borrower. The rate of interest is generally lower. The expenses of obtaining the money are not so great as in ordinary loans, and if it is borrowed upon good paying property then it often happens that the rents will meet the monthly installments and in time pay off the debt.

For further and other particulars inquire of

Los Angeles Herald

SATURDAY,.....JUNE 5, 1875.

COLONEL HOLLISTER, JAMES M. McSHAFTER and General J. F. MILLER are the prominent Republican candidates, or sacrafices, for Governor.

AT the meeting of the State Board of Education, Superintendent BOLANDER stated that the Post was the only paper that advocated a change of the school book readers. BANCROFT probably bought the cheapest advocate he could find.

A SUPPLEMENT to this morning's HERALD contains the proposed Constitutional amendments. The changes are many and important, and it is the duty of every man to carefully read and study them before casting his vote for or against them. They will appear in the WEEKLY HERALD for three months from this date.

THE San Francisco Post is opposing the nomination of FINDLEY for Governor by the Democratic State Convention. This is a good thing for FINDLEY. There was a fellow in Heaven once who opposed everything he saw. He left suddenly, and things went on as usual.

THE Republican, the Federal office organ recently started at Santa Barbara, announces its watchword for the campaign, which is "Down with Democracy." This has a loud sound. It reminds us of the roaring of a sucking dove or the low, sweet melody which issues from the mouth of a hungry donkey. Our Republican friends have been yelling "Down with Democracy" for years, but the Democracy is somewhat obstinate about obeying the command. The Republican is a new and weak advocate of the party of corruption and robbery, and its piping voice is heard by few, but it has a genuine twang—the real, simon pure ring—it is Republican all over. It offers no reasons why the Republican party should be retained in power, and presents no arguments in favor of that organization. Its whole stock in trade is "Down with Democracy."

THE Sacramento Record urges Gov. PACHECO as the strongest and most available candidate for Governor the Republican party can nominate. With the masses this endorsement will not add to the Governor's popularity, nor enhance his chances of election should he receive the nomination. Governor PACHECO is a thorough gentleman, and probably the most popular man the Republicans could nominate; but he is well aware that the preponderance of party power is against him, and that his election could only be secured by receiving two votes outside of the Republican party for every vote he would receive in it. Taking this the only practical view of the case it is not probable he either desires or will accept the nomination. His many friends do not wish to sacrifice him in a hopeless cause, and they will not heed the Record's advice, well knowing, as all do, that the endorsement of that paper is simply tying a mill-stone to a man under a pretense that it will assist in keeping him afloat.

THERE is a want of unanimity between our esteemed friend Superintendent BOLANDER and the remainder of the State Board of Education. They desired to have a meeting, and he did not wish it. The law being on the side of the majority, it seemed that the meeting must be held; but, as it could not be done without a call from the Secretary, Mr. BOLANDER, and as he refused to make the call, it appeared quite evident that the law and the majority had the weaker side of the issue. However, in a moment of absent-mindedness, he did call the meeting, but the sober second thought prevailing, he recalled, or tried to recall, the call. It was too late. The fiat had gone forth. The Superintendent discovered that there was a limit to even his power. The majority determined that they would hold a meeting, and as their determination was strengthened by the opinion of the Attorney General that the call was legal and the recall illegal, they assembled at Sacramento, and in a short time we may expect to hear that McGUFFEY's readers and Mr. BOLANDER have received a left-handed slap which will knock one out of the public schools and render next to impossible the reëlection of the other.

Vetoed.

His Honor, Mayor BEAUDRY, has vetoed the ordinance granting the Spring and Sixth Street Railroad Company the right to lay down and operate a track on San Fernando street from the present terminus of their road to a point opposite the middle switch of the Southern Pacific track a short distance South of the new depot building. We regard this as a wise act on the part of the Mayor. The HERALD has opposed this ordinance for two reasons, either one of which we regard as sufficient cause for its defeat. First, it granted the railway company permission in a great measure to so block up the public thoroughfare as to destroy its usefulness to the people living in the Eastern part of the city and its suburbs, a right which in our opinion should be granted to no private corporation without the full consent of all people concerned. Second, because we believe that the street railroad company would better subserve the interests of the public by keeping their road on the North side of the railroad track. We have before shown that San Fernando street is a thoroughfare through which hundreds of families reach and leave the city, and as it is already to a great extent occupied by tracks of the Southern Pacific road, it seems unjust to throw additional obstructions into it. The street railway company asked to cross the railroad track, a thing which should never be done by a street railway when it can possibly be avoided, because it endangers the lives of those in the horse-cars, and often causes delay of those cars through the occupation of the track by freight trains. If the Spring Street Railway Company should succeed in securing the privilege they ask, they would, aside from having to cross the track, land their passengers on the opposite side of several tracks from the depot, and, as would frequently happen, passengers would be compelled to work their way through or around freight trains occupying these tracks, an inconvenience which would never be encountered if the street railway remained on the North side of the railroad—the side on which the depot is located. For these reasons we think the Mayor's veto of the ordinance both just and proper.

The Man for the People.

As the desire of all parties now organized in the State seems directed toward reform and retrenchment, it would be a happy evidence of sincerity if they would all concentrate upon TOM FINDLEY for Governor. TOM came to this State in 1849, and settled in Nevada county. He was like the rest of us—poor, but full of energy. Like an honest, hard-working Pennsylvanian, he took off his coat and went to work immediately; mustered up sufficient coin to buy a team, and commenced freighting and draying—a good business in those days. He very soon made headway; saved his money, and in a very short time we find TOM and a young German friend in the banking business in Grass Valley. In 1857, TOM was nominated for State Treasurer and elected, and took his position in January, 1858. The State Treasury was then in a sorry plight; Dr. BATES, the Know-Nothing Treasurer, had drained it of every cent; the books were in confusion; the interest on the State debt had not been paid for two years; it was sent forward, or was supposed to be, but never reached the bondholders. TOM took off his coat and put things to rights, and under the operation of the act to create a Board of Examiners, and for the better protection of the State Treasury, which was devised by BRENT, DOWNEY and WILSON in the Legislature, things were soon put upon a proper basis. In 1859 TOM was reëlected, and he had the satisfaction of seeing the indebtedness of the State at par, and the semi-annual interest promptly paid. He had much to do in settling the affairs of the penitentiary, a chronic eye-sore under ESTELL and McCAULY, and retired amid the plaudits of the whole State. Why cannot this man now satisfy all parties? Surely, if they desire reform and good government, they should jump at the opportunity of taking an honest and tried public servant. If TOM were the candidate of the Independents, or even the Republicans, it would be hard for us to vote against him. We could not well do it.

A Collision.

MAHONEY CITY, Pa., June 3d.—At 3 o'clock to-day, Sheriff Warner telegraphed that his posse had been fired upon, and asked for military assistance. The Pottsville Light Infantry and Gowanus Guards immediately left by special train for this place. On their arrival they found that the mob had slunk away to the outskirts of the town. The citizens are greatly excited. All places of business are closed. The first disturbance occurred at Tyler & Co.'s colliery, when Sheriff Agnew and his posse ordered the rioters to disperse. One of their chiefs fired upon the Sheriff. The firing then became general, the rioters firing a volley on the citizens, who were outnumbered. Henry Lieutenberger, a policeman, was wounded and is in a critical condition. Henry Lockman was wounded in the leg; Wm. Encke was shot in the head and another man in the shoulder. Eight rioters were wounded and carried away, and one killed. The strikers have dispersed in different directions.

Col. Huntzeinger has established his headquarters in the Mansion House, and his troops are quartered in the City Hall. Much excitement exists. The miners will again resume work to-morrow.

San Francisco Items.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4th.—J. Earl, Manager of the Bureau of Immigration, makes a report of his operations for May. It is attested and recommended for perusal by the Mayor, I. Friedlander, C. J. Cressy, C. A. Low and John Morton. The Bureau has on its books 41,423 acres of government land for sale, located in the counties of Santa Cruz, Sonoma, Inyo, San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara, Santa Clara, and Contra Costa; 19,418 acres are authorized to be offered for rent in the counties of Santa Cruz, Contra Costa, Kern, San Luis Obispo and Santa Barbara. I. S. Gardner, the Assistant Manager, left on the 14th of the month on a tour of organization and inspection of the affiliated agencies. The class of immigrants now arriving, to whom the Bureau has rendered assistance, are remarkable for their intelligence, education and practical ability. The professions, mechanics, arts, and the various trades and occupations are all well represented. The farmer has largely exceeded all others in number. The following statistics are given: Unmarried men applying for situations, 269; unmarried females, 35; married persons, 120. With very few exceptions they have been placed in situations. The number of personal inquiries for land averaged about 20 per day.

Yesterday afternoon a man named Wm. Wilson was arrested for the embezzlement of a small sum of money from his employer, a butcher doing business in Centre market. He was lodged in the station house. A few moments after he was taken with violent convulsions. On his way to the prison, without the knowledge of the arresting officer, he had taken strychnine. Medical assistance was of no avail, Wilson dying about 11 P. M.

At the Coroner's inquest yesterday afternoon on the body of Mrs. Buchanan, who died Monday from the supposed criminal neglect and brutality of her husband, the jury found a verdict charging Buchanan with the murder.

Two stage tickets by Coast line to San Francisco are for sale at a large discount at the St. Charles.

At San Fernando the Temple oil well is 260 feet down and the oil is coming freely.

The Atlantic and Pacific telegraph line will be completed at once to Caliente, the poles having arrived here.

Work on the First National Gold Bank, we are informed by the architect, will be commenced next Monday.

The bark Glencoe, with lumber for Griffith, Lynch & Co., is at the anchorage.

Vivian, assisted by Mendel Meyer and other amateurs, gave an entertainment at Anaheim last night.

Mr. J. C. Dotter of Los Angeles was registered at the Russ House in San Francisco on Tuesday.

We have received the Daily Morning Republican, of Santa Barbara, a new paper in the interest of Grantism.

Mr. W. S. Lyon, of this city, was a guest of the Grand hotel, San Francisco, on Tuesday.

The State Board of Examination has issued life diplomas to Converse Howe and George H. Peck, of Los Angeles.

Mr. Bayley, of the San Diego foundry, is in the city. His establishment will furnish the iron front to the First National Gold Bank.

A coyote was captured on Centinela rancho on Thursday by Mr. Freeman. A wolf hunt is to take place soon at that point.

The law office of Rodney Hudson is now at Nos. 23 and 24 Temple block, nearly opposite the rooms previously occupied by the late firm of Brunson & Hudson.

The St. Charles restaurant retains its old popularity by providing those elegant luxuries which have become a necessity to our epicures. The original Delmonico could not in Los Angeles furnish a more tempting bill of fare than the St. Charles.

To-morrow night Prof. Randolph will deliver a startling lecture on novel subjects at the Court House. This lecture has been highly commended in the East, and our people should hear the gifted speaker.

Already several of the city teachers are far away, seeking rest and recreation. Miss Russell is at her home in Santa Clara, Miss Lucky is in San Francisco, Miss Palmer on the way to Yosemite, Miss Bixby in the mountains, Miss Onstott at Santa Monica, while others are preparing to leave. That all may have a good time and return with improved health, is the earnest wish of the Schoolmaster.

Rev. H. H. Messenger reports his Florida bananas, planted at Orange some five weeks ago, as doing finely. Some of them are a foot high. As it took twelve years to acclimate the banana in Florida, before it would bear without careful covering in Winter, and as he raised one ripe bunch from the China variety in less than two years from the time the bulbs came from the Sandwich Islands, he is quite enthusiastic concerning the success of the Florida banana, which will doubtless suit this climate. Mr. Messenger has also some half a dozen pine apples growing, though slowly, in the open air. He thinks they cannot bear here without careful housing in cold weather. He also says he has but 15 acres of oranges at Orange, instead of 40 as was reported. The mistake arose from the fact of there being some 40 acres of oranges in a body in his immediate vicinity.

SANTA ANA LETTER.

Description of the Country—Business Prosperity—Church and Sabbath School Privileges—Artesian Wells—An Enterprising Populatiou.

NUMBER 1.

EDITOR HERALD: The town of Santa Aua is proving its claim to much greater consideration from the HERALD than it has heretofore received. It is a wide-awake place, and has a bright future before it. Even should the depot not be placed near the town—and this is about settled in its favor—it has the essential elements of success within itself. It has a good soil, a fine system of irrigation so far as it is needed, a perfect climate, and enterprising citizens. And are not these enough?

There are three general business houses in the place, those of M. Frankel & Co., Messrs. Harlin & Wakeham, and W. H. Spurgeon. The last-named is now finishing a handsome new store building, with lodge room above. This building would be an ornament to any of our towns, and speaks well not only for Mr. Spurgeon but for Santa Ana itself. The store is sixty feet long by twenty-six wide, the stories being twelve and thirteen feet high respectively. The lodge room above will be neatly finished, and will have anterooms and all desirable conveniences. The whole building will be hard finished inside as well as out, and the total cost will be about $3,500. The lodge room will be used by the Masons, Odd Fellows, Grangers and Good Templars. Another building of the same general style could be built here with advantage, as the upper story could be utilized for offices, etc.

The livery stable of Santa Ana, kept by Mr. H. Hickey, is doing a good business and well repaying the enterprise of its popular proprietor.

Dr. Cunningham has closed out the stock and good will of his drug store in favor of Drs. Cummings and Burtnet, who keep a very neat and well furnished drug store.

There is a well kept hotel, but it is not large enough to meet the demands of travel. Here is a splendid opportunity for investment, and any person coming here for the purpose of erecting a commodious hotel building will meet with every encouragement the people of the place can give, and will most certainly meet a rich pecuniary reward. It may be called the one great need of the place at the present time.

The school here is taught by Miss McFadden, and is large and in good condition. The school building is sufficient for the immediate present, but the growth of the school indicates that very soon a new building must be erected or new wings added to the old.

There are several other business places here, among which may be mentioned two saloons, three blacksmith shops, one wheelwright shop, three butcher shops, millinery and dressmaking establishment, tin shop, etc. The proprietors of all these places have all they can do to attend to the wants of their customers, and the amount of work is steadily increasing. The indications are that a large town will be built up somewhere in this immediate neighborhood in a very few years, and some of the more sanguine predict that even Los Angeles must look out for a rival. Be that as it may, no citizen here but has firm faith in the future of his chosen home, and each is doing his utmost to realize his expectations.

Artesian wells are quite common here and can be had for moderate boring. One in the centre of the place flows several inches of water and supplies the public need.

In the Northern and Eastern portions of Santa Ana the soil is a sandy loam, like that of Orange, while in other parts it resembles the celebrated corn lands of Gospel Swamp. This last needs of course no irrigation at any time, and always yields the largest crops. It is on this land that the large farms of Mr. Palmer and the Messrs. McFadden are situated. Each of these ranches contains about seven hundred acres, and is principally seeded with corn. Mr. Palmer has this season set out large numbers of eucalyptus trees, and expects to reap a large profit in the near future, as he undoubtedly will.

It is estimated that on the swamp lands extending from Santa Ana to the other side of Gospel Swamp there are at least four thousand acres planted with corn, an equal amount with wheat and barley, and about one thousand acres with beans and potatoes. When we remember that this land yields on an average seventy-five bushels of corn to the acre, and other crops in proportion, it is easy to understand the prosperity of these people and the contentment they exhibit in their homes.

The upper loam lands are largely set with fruit trees and vineyards. They exhibit the most pleasing condition, and promise to rival those of Orange itself. But my letter is long enough this time. Mr. Editor, I am always enthusiastic about the country on this side of the Santa Ana river, and talk much in superlatives; but if any person thinks I exaggerate let him stay here a few months, study the country, mingle with the people freely, and he will grow as enthusiastic as myself.

W.

Santa Ana, June 2d, 1875.

Distinguished Visitors.

Yesterday we had the pleasure of meeting, at the St. Charles hotel, Messrs. Wm. Cramp and John Clouds of Philadelphia. Mr. Cramp is an extensive ship-builder, and has put afloat some of the finest vessels in the country, among them the noted monitor, Ironsides, for the government. He is at present building a government monitor and a vessel for the Alaska Fur Company. Mr. Clouds was for thirty years an Alderman in a populous district of the Centennial city, and is now a member of the City Council. Both are now venerable in years and have witnessed many great changes, Philadelphia growing under their eyes from 200,000 to 700,000 in population. Both gentlemen visited Wolfskill's orange grove and Don Mateo Keller's vineyard and wine cellars. A personal inspection of the magnificent Wolfskill grove, and acquaintance with its gentlemanly proprietor, will convince them of the importance of Los Angeles as the great orange mart of the coast. A personal interview with the genial Don Mateo Keller, the manufacturer of 200,000 gallons of wine, the owner of a princely ranch of 30,000 acres on the coast and a vineyard of 110 acres in the city limits, has done much to show the gentlemen the capacity of Southern California. We hope their stay will be profitable and their return trip to their homes agreeable.

[Written for the HERALD.]

WHEN WE WERE YOUNG.

BY CLARA.

When we were young, dear Susan,
We then were quick and spry,
And none could ride the horses
As swift as you and I.

But now we have grown older
And cannot go so fast,
We are not quite so sprightly
Since fifty years have past.

But still we love each other,
And shall until we die;
For who should love each other
As well as you and I?

How well I still remember
When first I saw your face;
'Twas when we were but children
And loved to run a race.

Your cheeks were like the roses,
Your hair as black as night;
Your eyes were full of sunshine,
Your heart was always light.

And when we had grown older
I asked you out to ride;
'Twas then you said with candor
That you would be my bride.

And oh! I was so happy!
I asked you for a kiss,
And you, my darling Susan,
Thought two was not amiss.

We did not tell our pleasure
To anyone around;
But went to work directly
And bought a piece of ground,

I built a little cabin
Of logs that were near by;
While you at making biscuits
Your skill would often try.

And this, you know, gave warning,
And so it went the inmost rounds
That Susie Lee would marry
The Mr. William Brown.

The time, I'll ne'er forget it
As long as I have life—
The day that we were wedded
And you became my wife.

And when we left your father's
And to our home we went,
We found it was so pleasant
We named it Home Content.

But now your cheeks are faded,
My hair is almost white;
And we have both grown feeble,
And age has dimmed our sight.

And yet we love each other,
And shall until we die;
For who should love each other
As well as you and I?

A Serious Accident.

Last night at 8 o'clock, as the special train for Wilmington started from the depot, a cry of distress was heard, the train stopped, and a man named Wm. Harrington was found under the wheels of a box-car, with both legs crushed off below the knees, and other severe injuries. He was immediately carried into the waiting room, where Superintendent Hewitt gave him every attention and the railway employés nursed him with the tenderest care. From his own account he tried to steal a ride, and being very drunk fell between the cars. Owing to his besotted condition he did not realize his terrible calamity, and was finally carried to the County Hospital, where Drs. Kurtz, Orme, Stanway and Ross amputated his crushed limbs. All present absolved the railroad company from blame, and recognized the calamity as a most impressive temperance lecture.

SANTA BARBARA ITEMS.

[From the Republican, June 2d.]

The Marra Italian Opera Troupe departs this morning for San Buenaventura, after staying among us for a week. Ventura will for the first time have an opportunity to be charmed by the inspring music of Italian operatic concerts, rendered by artists of rare talent.

We learn that Mr. Wm. Benham, a gentleman of San Luis Obispo, has leased of Mr. John Bradley the Ocean Beach Park Track for the Fourth of July. A purse of $1,500 is being made up for that day, which will be divided into three smaller purses, viz: $800, $400 and $300. This will be a temptation to induce fast speed.

We are pained to learn that Miss Laura Neumayer, daughter of Prof. Neumayer, met with a very painful accident and a narrow escape from death. A party of young ladies and gentlemen had assembled at the residence of Mr. Ellwood Cooper last Saturday and participated in a picnic. During the day a number of the party took a stroll through the fields, explored cañons and had a good time in general. While they were passing along the edge of a steep precipice about 50 feet perpendicular, and unbeknown to the main party, which was some distance in advance, the young lady fell to its very foot. Her presence was soon missed by the party, and immediately a search was made. She was discovered lying at the foot of this bluff, bruised and senseless, in which state she remained nearly three hours. Medical aid was immediately procured and everything done to save the young lady's life. She gradually improved under the good care she received while at the residence of Mr. Cooper, and on yesterday morning was brought into town to her home. We learn this morning that she is improving wonderfully and is out of danger. This was surely a miraculous escape from death.

Wilmington Items.

[From the Enterprise.]

A large number of ties and iron are now being shipped from Wilmington for the railroad extension towards San Bernardino.

Wool grading and packing is still in progress at E. N. McDonald's warehouse. The lot on hand amounts to 120,000 pounds.

Fifty flat cars are now in course of construction at the railroad shops at this place. Two more passenger coaches will soon arrive from San Francisco.

The machinery for the new furniture manufactory is being put together and in a short time the establishment will be in operation.

The quantity of lumber that daily leaves Wilmington for Los Angeles and other points indicates that there has been but little, if any, abatement in the lively building operations that have been going on in this valley for some time past.

The Bazaar, corner of Main and Requena streets, has just received an immense stock of new goods, consisting of clothing, dry goods, boots, shoes, hats, etc., which they will sell at bottom prices. Call and examine their stock. ml
